

Spend More Time Analyzing and Less Time Searching

RGE organizes and delivers the best global economic and geostrategic information on the web like no other. We are focused on getting you the information you want quickly and efficiently.

Our award-winning coverage includes:

- Spotlight on Top Issues: Our content aggregation service covers the most important and up-to-date issues and topics debated by members of the economic community from an unbiased perspective. You get the full picture under a topic with the pulse on today's global economic and geostrategic debates, from financial markets, to currencies, to policy.
- Global Daily Digest: A treasure chest of the most current coverage on breaking issues including news, opinion, analysis, important speeches, top research papers and blogs. The coverage is continuously updated by our editors who hand-pick each entry. We publish a Global Daily Digest for over 130 separate topics and countries.
- Quarterly Conference Calls and Webcasts: These calls give our Premium subscribers an opportunity to hear firsthand in-depth analysis of current developments and to have some 1-on-1 interaction with our Chairman Nouriel Roubini & Global Head of Research Brad Setser during the Q&A portion in the second half of each call.
- Working Paper Series (International Macroeconomics & International Trade): Our Premium subscribers enjoy easy access to these papers, which are framed in the larger context of today's debates.
- RGE Briefs: Our summaries of our framed debates, highlighted in "Spotlight on Top Issues" – showing an unbiased view and summary of a topic from all angles.
- Proprietary Trade & Capital Flows Monitors: Quarterly reports track global reserve management trends through our proprietary Chinese Reserve Watch, Global Reserve Watch, Petrodollar Watch and recently added Russian Reserve Watch.
- Proprietary Global Presentations: These are RGE Monitor's proprietary research and analysis. They include global presentations delivered by both Nouriel Roubini and Brad Setser at Drobny, Davos, IMF, and other international conferences.

"RGE Monitor is a tremendous source for critical economic analysis. Topical, comprehensive, interesting, and immaculately organized, it's an essential desktop reference tool."

Dr. Benn Steil
Director of International Economics,
Council on Foreign Relations

"[RGE Monitor] is the best macro website I have ever seen"

Krzysztof Rybinski
Deputy Governor,
National Bank of Poland

"Roubini's site is the best economic web site in the world."

Adam Posen
National Public Radio

"Nearly all experts on international finance and economics in Washington regularly check this site maintained by former White House and Treasury Department economist Nouriel Roubini."

National Journal

"A great service, and it appears to be getting even better. I believe this will become like Bloomberg, a tool that investment professionals must have to stay competitive."
